March Breakfast Program “Design-Build for Schools – Making it Happen!”

Wednesday, March 10, 2010

7:30am – 9:00am

Double Tree Hotel – Overland Park, KS

Guest Speakers:

Jay Harris: Dr. Harris is the Assistant Superintendent in the Raymore–Peculiar School District and has been with the District for ten years. As a member of DBIA he continues to work with local politicians to change Missouri state law to allow schools to enter into design-build contracts. He firmly believes that design-build has the potential to improve the cost and timeline of new construction for schools.

Rep. Christopher Molendorp: Rep. Molendorp is a representative for Cass Co. District 123 and has been an involved member of the Raymore-Peculiar community. He will be discussing Missouri House Bill 1707 and additional legislation proposed for 2010.

Bill Quatman FAIA, DBIA, Esq: Mr. Quatman is General Counsel and Vice President of Burns & McDonnell Engineering Co., Inc. He is a nationally recognized author and speaker on legal aspects of design and construction. Additionally, Mr. Quatman is a licensed architect and an attorney named annually as one of The Best Lawyers in America since 2004.

Learning Objectives Include:

1. Understand why Design-Build should be used for public schools.
2. Learn how Ray-Pec has incorporated an integrated approach.
3. Learn updates on Design-Build legislation for Missouri.
4. Gain a better understanding of Design-Build legislation for school districts across the country.
